Next Generation Biofuels Seminar, 9 March 2007, Crowne Plaza Hotel Brussels

Given the moderate GHG savings achievable from 1st generation biofuels it is essential that the industry moves to 2nd & 3rd generation platforms as soon as possible. This seminar will examine the different migration paths, when different technologies are likely to come online and how the transition can be made with minimal sunk costs.

In-depth Analysis on:

- Bringing next generation biofuels to market
- The roadmap to cellulosic ethanol
- Next generation biofuels: biomass to liquids (BTL) fuels and technology, next generation biodiesel
- Third generation biofuels technology

Experts Confirmed to Present include:

- Michael Raab, Chief Executive Officer, Agrivida, USA
- Stephen Gatto, Chief Executive Officer, BioEnergy LLC, USA
- Andrew Kingston, Chief Executive Officer, Dynamotive, Canada
- Birgitte Ahring, Founder, BioGasol, Denmark
- Senior representative, ECN, The Netherlands

Event Partners & Sponsors

Gold Sponsor

www.broin.com

Broin, the largest dry mill ethanol producer in the United States, is an established leader in the biorefining industry through technology development, production capacity, plant management and marketing. The 20-year old company currently manages 18 plants in the United States while marketing more than one billion gallons of ethanol annually.

Broin has a reputation of fast, successful commercialization of innovative technology that includes recent patent-pending raw starch hydrolysis technology (BPX™) and grain fractionation (BFrac™). Broin's ability to collaborate with other industry leaders to further research and development has positioned the company as a world leader in several areas, most notably the drive to commercialize cellulose to ethanol production.

Silver Sponsors

Strategic Event Partners

The European Biodiesel Board also known as EBB, is a non-profit organisation established in January 1997. EBB aims to promote the use of biodiesel in the European Union, at the same time, grouping the major EU biodiesel producers. www.ebb-eu.org

Founded in 2005, eBIO serves as the voice of the European bioethanol fuel industry, providing advocacy, authoritative analysis and important industry data to its members, the European Institutions, strategic partners, the media and other opinion leaders. www.ebio.org

Endorsing Associations

Russian Biofuels Association promotes renewable fuels in Russia - bioethanol & biodiesel. To achieve its goals the Association works with various government and non-government stakeholders in Russian and Former Soviet Union countries

Founded in 1985, EFOA is a non-profit association that represents European producers of fuel ethers. Its role is to represent the European Fuel Ether industry in a wide variety of technical and government initiatives and it is as such recognised by the European Commission as a stakeholder on fuel quality and biofuels. The European Fuel Oxygenates Association (EFOA) is a sector group of CEFIC, the European Chemical Industry Council www.efoa.org

EUBIA, the European Biomass Industry Association, groups together market forces, technology providers, and knowledge centres, all of them active in the field of biomass. Our main objective is to support the European biomass industries at all levels, promoting the use of biomass as an energy source, developing innovative bioenergy concepts and fostering international co-operation within the bioenergy field. www.eubia.org

Networking at the World Biofuels Markets Congress

"Congratulations for the successful biofuel markets conference held in Brussels, it was an excellent conference for people to exchange and share ideas and experiences" ITRI Taiwan

Over 650 leading market players are expected to attend World Biofuels Markets, the industry's premier international networking event.

"We were quite amazed by the number of participants and importance of the issues" European Commission

Maximise your participation in World Biofuels Markets with our Online Networking Solution, arrange meetings with delegates and speakers prior to the event and keep in contact afterwards.

The World Biofuels Markets Reception will take place on the evening of 7th March and will be an excellent opportunity to network with your peers in a relaxed, social environment.

"I think that the best thing about this conference was that you gathered in one place people from different institutions (associations, EU authorities, producer, scientists, bankers, lawyers) with different views on the market" SEB Venture Capital

Biofuels Markets Global Events: Dates for 2007

The leading global biofuels series attracted over 1000 executives from 63 countries in 2006, representing all sectors of the value chain.
